Reflections on Today's Gospel

Gospel Verse: John 13:1, 31-33,34-35

1. Share an example of living out the commandment to love in a difficult situation.
2. Is there a time you can recall when someone showed you love and compassion when you really were not expecting it? What happened?
3. How is the commandment to love affect the act of forgiveness?
4. Is God asking you to 'wash the feet' of someone you find challenges your ability to love? What is one step you can take to begin to think differently about this?

Parenting Tip

As summer approaches life tends to become a little more relaxed. Longer days mean bedtimes become less specific, warmer days mean our food and drink consumption changes and, hopefully, we take full advantage of these lovely days by spending more time with our children. This summer, be specific and plan what you would like to accomplish with your children: more reading together, more time hiking, more family game nights, more time spent preparing and cooking as a family, etc. Time spent together creates confident, healthy children; when we include daily prayer with our family, life is golden! From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office, 905-528-7988 ext. 2250.
